Have you ever been afraid to attend events because you don't know anyone there? Are you unsure about how to approach someone you don't know? Is your fear of meeting new people getting in the way of your career success? Join us for the Alumni Networking Skills Reception where a special guest speaker will tell you how to approach networking with more knowledge and more confidence. We will also pair you with a community business leader who will help guide you through an evening of meet-and-greets. Learn from the best and make new contacts.

Guest Speaker

“Importance of Building Alliances”

Mel Sheeler, President/CEO, Sheeler Moving and Storage

Business Attire.

Must be a current member of the Alumni & Friends Association to attend.

Not a current member? Join today and be a part of this great event.
