Brief Activity Description	In the fall semester 2016 and Spring Semester 2017 I will teach three courses in which I would like to bring in guest speakers. In the Fall I expect to be teaching HIST/PSY436 East Asian Warrior Cultures and PSY344 Psychology and Traditional Asian Thought. The fall course is taught with the History program and is interdisciplinary. In the Spring I will be teaching PSY473 Bizarre Behaviors and Culture-Bound Syndromes. All of these courses are taught from a multicultural point of view.
	For HIST-PSY 436 I would like to bring in 5 speakers, Jeet Kun Do master Sifu Peter Nuygen, noted Karate masters Sensei Ben Otake and Hanshi John Sells, laido expert Sensei Jeff Learned, and Thai Boxing master Kru Ken Rose.
	For PSY344 I would like to bering in two speakers - yoga teacher and expert Jessica Anderson and traditional Chinese medicine doctor Julie Ryan.
	In the Spring I will be teaching PSY473 Bizarre Behaviors and Culture Bound Syndrome. For this course I would like to bring in 2 guest speakers, Dr. Wendy Walsh noted author, television presenter and relationship expert, and Deborah Rubright who is a former police officer and currently a licensed counselor. These speakers will be lecturing on extreme relationships and criminality respectively, which are important components of the course.
	HIST-PSY 436, PSY 344, and PSY 473 are very popular classes with the some of the largest enrollments on campus (approximately 125, 100, 90 respectively average over the last few years. Therefore, these speakers will impact a large number of students. I expect enrollments may go up next year.
