In the fields of Non-Fiction, Fiction, Poetry, and Screenwriting/ Playwriting, students can submit and go through the experience of attempting to have their own work published in a small setting before leaving college as graduates, where the environment is much more arduous for publishing work. It gives students the possibility to not only leave CSUCI with a published piece of work, but also the experience, whether rejected or accepted for publication by fellow students, of actually knowing what struggles or obstacles exist in submitting work to a body of people acting as a publishing company. The advertisement of this annual literary journal stimulates interest in the English department as a whole, if not the entire school.
