Academic Program(s) / Center Name(s)	Performing Arts in conjunction with ESRM, Biology, Anthropology
Estimated total Course Fee revenue	NA
Amount Requested from IRA	$4,100.00
Estimated Number of Students Participating	22
Conditions and Considerations	Field Trip
Brief Activity Description	Performing Arts integrated with Biology, ESRM, and Anthropology are interested in traveling to the Santa Rosa Island where research will meet creative inspiration to help inform a video and live performance that will be performed during AJUTS and have a web space dedicated to disseminating the research inspired performance. Using video and drones, the students will document their creative exploration of the island through artistic and research based methods to bring back and inform CI and the general public about the Santa Rosa Island's history, biology, and inspiring qualities.
Learning Outcomes and Relation to IRA to Course Offerings	Classes Participating Includes but not limited to: PA490 Production, PADA353 Jazz 2, 354 Modern 2, PADA Dance Ensemble 458, PAMU 385 Audio Design and Recording, PAMU Contemporary Music Ensemble, EOP program, PACHS 352 Aztec Dance, Independent Students in Biology, ESRM, Communication, Creative Writing, and Health Science. Learning Objectives: A trip to Santa Rosa Island with Performing Arts dance, music, and theatre students in conjunction with biology and anthropology to explore scientific, humanitarian, and artistic qualities of the island through a collaborative three day intensive to inform a web space performance in addition to a live performance for Arts Under The Stars.
Description of Assessment Process	ASSESSMENT Assessment will be measured through student response papers, anonymous student surveys, anonymous audience on-line survey, and analytics from the digital program and website.

Target Audience/Student Marketing	Promoting Participation A call for research to the CI campus will go out mid-October through CI view, social media channels, e-mail, campus posters and word of mouth. All courses specifically pertaining to AJUTS such as PA490 are open to all students wanting to participate. Those students who are assigned the Santa Rosa Island performance art project will specifically benefit from the experience. Those who visit the web space and come to AJUTS will benefit from the artistic and research project generated from the trip.

Bring Benefit to Campus	A section of Arts Under The Stars, a performance event on campus will feature performances generated during this trip. A Web page will also document the students collaboration and creation.
