Sex education is “a lifelong process of learning and acquiring information, forming attitudes, beliefs and values about identity, relationships and intimacy” (DIECUS, Guidelines, 2004, p13). WPE provides sex education and responsibility information and resources to students regarding a wide array topics related to sexuality responsibility and disease prevention. The overall goal of sexual health education is to provide students with knowledge and skills to promote their health and well-being throughout their lives (SIECSU, Guidelines, 2004).
