

Financial Aid

The Financial Aid office assists students in obtaining financial aid resources to meet their educational costs. Students interested in financial aid must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) through the online application at www.fafsa.ed.gov. A variety of financial aid resources are available to students, including grants, loans, federal work study, and scholarships. After students have completed and submitted the FAFSA, they may be considered for a variety of grants, loans, and scholarships. CSU Channel Islands' federal Title IV School Code is 039803.

STUDENT LIFE

Student Life co-curricular programs and services provide learning opportunities that inspire intellectual, personal and civic growth for leadership in a diverse and complex world.

Dean of Students

The Dean of Students office serves a central role in student learning and development at CI, while advancing the University's mission by fostering academic and social networks through which students develop as intentional learners and global citizens. The Dean of Students office creates opportunities to involve students, faculty and staff in diverse learning communities and provides a critical support structure for enriching the overall student experience.

Judicial Affairs

The Judicial Affairs office develops, disseminates, interprets, and enforces campus regulations; protects the relevant legal rights of students; addresses student behavioral problems in an effective and educational manner; facilitates and encourages respect for campus governance; and provides learning experiences for students who participate in the operations of the judicial system.

Leadership, Career and Health

Leadership, Career and Health (LCH) highlights the development of students through co-curricular education, provides leadership opportunities for students and is directly responsible for a variety of exciting co-curricular activities and events. Programs and services include: Alcohol and Other Drug Awareness Programs; Campus Recreation; Career Development Services; Personal Counseling Services; Student Health Services; Student Leadership Programs; and Student Clubs and Organizations.

Access, Orientation and Transition

The purpose of Access, Orientation and Transition (AOT) is to create educational opportunities that promote and foster respect and understanding among all individuals and cultures. The various programs within AOT facilitate a welcoming and safe environment for students to learn and develop while offering services and resources that create equal access to education. Programs and services include: Disability Resource Programs; Educational Opportunity Program; Multicultural Programs; New Student, Orientation and Transition Programs; University Outreach and Student Success Programs; and Educational Talent Search.

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Web Site: <http://www.csuci.edu/athletics>

CI has a unique opportunity to design and implement broad-based competitive sport and recreational programs that reflect the ideals of educationally focused and gender equitable student athletes.

The underlying philosophy of each competitive sport and recreational program is very simple – to accommodate the needs of students, the campus, and the larger community in which we reside. Competitive sport and recreational programs will be educationally based, focusing on the needs and interests of the participants. Planning is underway to tentatively start varsity competition in fall of 2011.
