FACULTY POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
TENURE-TRACK

Department: Communication  Effective Date of Appointment: August 19, 2020
(Subject to Budgetary Approval)

Rank: Assistant Professor, Tenure Track

About the University:
The newest addition to the California State University system, California State University Channel Islands (CSUCI) opened in 2002 with 629 transfer students and welcomed its first freshman class in fall 2003. Since that time, the University has grown and developed into one of the premier public universities not only in the Cal State system but also in the nation. Indeed, in its 2018 ranking, U.S. News & World Report listed CSUCI as the 18th highest-ranked regional public university in the western United States. Moreover, CSUCI was ranked 18th of over 1,300 schools in CollegeNET’s Social Mobility Index in 2017. In a commitment to inclusive excellence of opportunity for its students, the University offers an array of degrees and community and social activities.

CSUCI is a public comprehensive university that engages students in critical inquiry and is dedicated to educating leaders for a global society. CSUCI is located in Ventura County and home to more than 6,800 undergraduate and 240 graduate students. We are proud to note that our campus is a designated Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI). 50% of the CSUCI undergraduate students are Latinx, 29% are White, 2% are African-American, 5% are Asian-American, and 4.5% are multiracial. We seek applicants who are dedicated to serving California State University, Channel Islands’ (CSUCI) growing diverse student body as a tenure-track assistant professor beginning in the 2020-2021 academic year.

CSUCI Mission Statement:
Placing students at the center of the educational experience, California State University Channel Islands provides undergraduate and graduate education that facilitates learning within and across disciplines through integrative approaches, emphasizes experiential and service learning, and graduates students with multicultural and international perspectives.

About the Program:
The Communication Department is one of the largest majors on campus, and offers students three emphases: organizational communication, health communication, and environmental communication. The Department also serves the wider university through general education courses. Departmental strengths include faculty-student interaction, a focus on applied and service learning opportunities, and the development of student research. The department is home to the Communication Club and Dolphin Radio – both of which provide opportunities for students to participate in campus extracurricular activities.
CSUCI's Commitment to You:
CSUCI provides excellent faculty support services for new hires to settle in and join a collaborative and supportive community. With the proper support, the successful candidate will contribute to the mission of the school and university.

Qualifications:

Minimal Qualifications – Applicants must have Ph.D. degree in Communication or a closely related field. ABD candidates will be considered but must have completed the Ph.D. degree by August 18, 2020.

Required Qualifications:
The successful candidate will have a background in organizational communication, with preferred specialty in communication and technology, social media, and/or technology in organizations. Scholarship that complements one or more of these areas is also required. The successful candidate will also demonstrate an ability to teach courses in organizational communication, nonprofit management, leadership, and/or a variety of foundational courses in Communication. Applicants should demonstrate the commitment to effectively work with and engage a diverse student population and evidence of how they would successfully mentor minoritized students with special focus on Latinx, African-American, and Native American students.

Preferred Qualifications:
Candidates with experience in service and/or experiential learning, curriculum design and development, and/or assessment of student learning outcomes are especially welcome.

Responsibilities:
Responsibilities include teaching courses in the organizational communication emphasis and in service of the major, maintaining an active research agenda, and collaborating with colleagues to develop, assess, and promote the major.

Application Deadline:
Screening of applications will begin October 7, 2019. Priority will be given to applicants who meet the screening deadline; however, the position will remain open until filled.
Applicants must submit the following materials:

1. a letter of application,
2. curriculum vitae,
3. names and email addresses of three references,
4. three current reference letters,
5. a statement describing your experience mentoring and/or working with minoritized students with a special focus on Latinx, African-American, and Native American students, and
6. a teaching philosophy describing how you plan to engage and interact with students, with a special focus on Latinx, African-American, and Native American students.

In later phases of the search process, applicants may be requested to provide verification of terminal degrees, licenses and certificates.
