DEED OF GIFT INSTRUCTIONS

The Deed of Gift is in effect the request form, acceptance form, and donor receipt for gifts-in-kind.

The top portion of the Deed of Gift Form should be filled out by the donor. The donor establishes the value estimate of gifts worth less than $5,000. Gifts whose value are greater than or equal to $5,000 must be appraised at the donor's expense. The appraisal should be submitted along with the Deed of Gift Form. The donor should forward the original Deed of Gift form to a University Official for the required signatures.

The bottom portion of the form should be filled-out by University officials only. The form should be signed first by the person receiving and/or requesting the gift, followed by the appropriate CSUCI cabinet member, and finally by the Director of Donor Relations.

ONLY after the Deed of Gift Form has been signed by the Director of Donor Relations may the gift be considered accepted by the California State University Foundation.

Once the Deed of Gift Form is completed, the Development Office will confirm acceptance with the requesting department then contact the donor and OPC if necessary to make arrangement for receiving the gift. A copy of the Deed of Gift form should be given to the donor at the time the gift is received.

Copies of the Deed of Gift Form should also be distributed to the Requesting Department and Accounting. The completed original Deed of Gift Form is filed in the Development Office.
