Cultural Symbolism & Interpretation: Native American Petroglyphs (Class Visits and Campus-wide Event)

1. Description:

The Communication & Anthropology Programs will co-sponsor a campus wide speaking event, "Cultural Symbolism & Interpretation: Native American Petroglyphs" featuring Dr. Christine Oravec, emeritus Communication faculty from the University of Utah (see attached CV). This event will be open to the all students.

In addition to an all-campus event, Dr. Oravec will give two classroom presentations, tailoring her presentation to compliment current course curriculum. Dr. Oravec will speak to students enrolled in COMM/ESRM/POLS 450 Environmental Conflict Resolution about the role of symbolism and language as it relates to our interaction and social construction of the environment and the escalation of environmental / cultural conflict. Dr. Oravec will also speak to students enrolled in ANTH 105 Introduction to Archeology about cultural archaeology with respect to Native Americans petroglyphs and theories of meaning and interpretation.

2. Relation to course offerings.

The all campus event is related to general course offerings in various programs such as Communication, Anthropology, Sociology, English and History. The classroom presentations and guest lectures are specific to:

- COMM/ESRM/POLS 450 Environmental Conflict Resolution
- ANTH 105 Introduction to Archeology

3. Assessment

Students attending the all campus event will be asked to fill out a survey evaluating the presentation. Students enrolled in COMM/ESRM 450 and ANTH 105 will be asked to write a 1-page assessment of the event relating it to course teachings.

4. Budget

March 13, 2009

Dear Christine,

It is my pleasure to offer you an honorarium of $1000 to guest lecture at California State University Channel Islands this 2009 spring semester, Wednesday, April 8th, 2009. As discussed, you will be lecturing /presenting in two different classes:

1:30 PM-2:45 PM
4-6:30 PM

Introduction to Archeology / All Campus Event
Environmental Conflict Resolution

The first lecture will be advertised and open to the general campus and will focus on cultural archaeology with respect to Native Americans petroglyphs and theories of meaning and interpretation. The second lecture will be primarily geared towards students enrolled in COMM 450 Environmental Conflict Resolution and will focus on the role of symbolism and language as it relates to our interaction and social construction of the environment and the escalation of environmental / cultural conflict.

The honorarium covers your speaking and travel fees. You are responsible for travel, lodging and per diem expenses during your visit to CSUCI.

I am looking forward to your presentations here at CSUCI. I believe students will be greatly enriched by the information you share with them.

Sincerely,
