Instructionally Related Activities Funds Request 2009-2010 Academic Year

Conditions and Considerations

Equipment Purchase-If requesting large equipment, Project Sponsor must show proof of correspondence with OPC Administration. In addition, all other purchases must follow Procurement Guidelines

Events-Attach copy of Events and Facilities Use Request Form (Public Folders-Events & Facilities folder) Consider time frame for set-up and take down.

Participant Data Collection for Public Dissemination-If Project Sponsor proposes to conduct research with human participants then it may be subject to IRB (Institutional Review Board for the Protection of Human Subjects) review. It is the Project Sponsor's responsibility to inquire with the IRB prior to IRA application submission to determine if the project is exempt from IRB review so that funding is not delayed. Please indicate on the cover page if your project is exempt from IRB review.

Field Trip-If approved, Identified Risks of Participation and Release Agreement must be submitted for each student to the Program Office (Public Folders-HR Forms).

IT Requirements-Requires proof of correspondence and approval from IT Administration

International Travel-Requires International Travel application be submitted to Center for International Affairs.

Risk Management Consultation-Requires proof of correspondence with Risk Management.

Space/OPC Requirements, Infrastructure/Remodel-Requires proof of correspondence with OPC Administration .

Late Submission (Deadlines: Fall 3/14, Spring 10/15)-Requires explanation for emergency funding.

Fiscal Management: Project Sponsor's program will be responsible for all costs incurred over and above what is funded through the IRA award and will be responsible for seeing that any revenue that is intended to offset the amount of the IRA award is transferred accordingly.

Application
Instructionally Related Activities Funds Request
2009-2010 Academic Year

Requirements and Signatures

Please provide the following in your application:

1. Brief Activity Description. Describe the activity and its relationship to the educational objectives of the students' program or major.

"Mathematics Seminar" consists of a series of invited lectures on contemporary mathematics. Presenters include CSUCI students and faculty as well as a large number of invited speakers per year. Topics are chosen from mathematics education, mathematics research and interdisciplinary applications of mathematics. Recent presentation topics have included insides to Archimedes, applications of graphs, understanding quantum mechanics, existence of rational points in a square, a statistical models for casino betting, braid groups, Polynomial Map and its Implications in Chemistry, modeling of pension plans costs, industrial mathematics, among many others. Seminars are publicized and open to the entire campus and to the local community. We have between 20 and 60 participants in each seminar, which translates to roughly 400 students each semester. We request the funds to be able to cover costs (lodging, travel, etc.) and pay honoraria to our invited speakers during AY09-10.

2. Relation to IRA to Course Offerings. All IRAs must be integrally related to the formal instructional offerings of the University and must be associated with scheduled credit courses. Please list all classes that related to the program proposed.

Students taking MATH 499 are the primary beneficiaries of these funds. However, other students with an interest in mathematics and in the applications of mathematics to other fields (e.g. to other sciences, including social sciences) also attend as interest dictates. In addition, students in MATH 492, MATH 497, UNIV 498, and LS 492 attend some seminars and use the seminar for the capstone presentations.

3. Activity Assessment. Describe the assessment process and measures that the program will use to determine if it has attained its educational goals. Please note a report will be due at the end of the semester.

Mathematics Seminar uses attendance at seminars and student evaluations for MATH 499, MATH 492, MATH 497, and UNIV 498, and for LS 492 as appropriate to determine whether the program has attained its educational goals. We also use the feedback obtained from distinguished presenters to assess whether we have been good hosts.

4. Activity Budget. Please enclose a complete detailed budget of the entire Activity bold specific items of requested IRA funding. (Page 4)

We use a range of speakers: some travel from out-of-state or out-of-country, others arrive from universities and companies within driving distance, and some are from CSUCI. We request these funds to cover the travel costs of those driving from within Southern California, some part of the travel costs of speakers arriving from farther away, and honoraria for our distinguished speakers.

TOTAL = $5250 for speakers' honoraria and related costs (travel/lodging/etc) – estimate 28 funded speakers during AY09-10. (Estimated total number of speakers is 50.)

5. Sources of Activity Support. Please list the other sources of funding, and additional support for the activity.

Some speakers donate their time and effort to the advantage of our students. CSUCI faculty carry out the behind-the-scenes work of making the arrangements necessary to provide for a good experience for our distinguished visitors, often buy speakers' dinners, and use their own funds to provide refreshments for all seminar attendees. Other institutions and associations (e.g. UCSB, CLU, the Southern California-Nevada Section of the Mathematical Association of America) engage in cost-sharing (particularly travel costs) when we share speakers who make one trip to Southern California to speak at multiple events.

7. Acknowledgment. Project Sponsor and Program Chair acknowledge that they have reviewed and accepted the Conditions and Considerations detailed on page 2.

Dear Jessica,

Thanks for the title and abstract: they look great.

I'm attaching directions to CSUCI as well as a campus map indicating the library. You'll receive a parking permit in the mail in the next week or so. You'll probably want to park in lot A1 or in front of the library.

I'll head over to the library sometime between 5 and 5:30. If you have any trouble getting here or finding your way once on campus, please call me at 805-437-3260.

The seminar room is in the library: 2325 (upstairs and to the left). We get the room at 5:30; we have refreshments and social time until 6 p.m. The talk itself is from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. (Ideally you'd finish a few minutes before 7:00 so there'd be some time for questions.) As I mentioned earlier, the audience is primarily composed of first-year masters students and faculty; broad-based talks are best; very detailed technicalities won't go over so well. There is a LCD projection system in the room as well as whiteboards.

As agreed, we're pleased to offer you an honorarium of $150 in gratitude of the effort you'll put into preparing and delivering your presentation and as some compensation towards your travel expenses.

Of course, if I've forgotten anything, please don't hesitate to ask.

We look forward to seeing you on Wednesday, April 7.

Dear Min-Lin,

Thanks for the title and abstract: they look great.

I'm attaching directions to CSUCI as well as a campus map indicating the library. You'll receive a parking permit in the mail in the next week or so. You'll probably want to park in lot A1 or in front of the library.

I'll head over to the library sometime between 5 and 5:30. If you have any trouble getting here or finding your way once on campus, please call me at 805-437-3260.

The seminar room is in the library: 2325 (upstairs and to the left). We get the room at 5:30; we have refreshments and social time until 6 p.m. The talk itself is from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. (Ideally you'd finish a few minutes before 7:00 so there'd be some time for questions.) As I mentioned earlier, the audience is primarily composed of first-year masters students and faculty; broad-based talks are best; very detailed technicalities won't go over so well. There is a LCD projection system in the room as well as whiteboards.

As agreed, we're pleased to offer you an honorarium of $150 in gratitude of the effort you'll put into preparing and delivering your presentation and as some compensation towards your travel expenses.

Of course, if I've forgotten anything, please don't hesitate to ask.

We look forward to seeing you on Wednesday, March 17.

11/05/2009

Dear David,

I am pleased to invite you to speak in the CSU Channel Islands Mathematics Seminar on 11/18/2009. We look forward to hearing your talk Convergence of Poker Endgame Models.

I'll send directions to CSUCI as well as a campus map indicating where you can pick up a parking permit (there will be one waiting for you with your name on it). I'll plan to be in the vicinity of the library from approximately 5 p.m. on to meet you once you arrive. If you have any trouble getting here or finding your way once on campus, please call me. My cell number is 805-807-2791. The Graduate Seminar meets in the Broome Library, room 2325.

I'll open up the seminar room at 5:30; either I or someone else will provide refreshments about that time. The talk itself is from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. (Ideally you'd finish a few minutes before 7 p.m. so there'd be some time for questions.)

You might keep a few things in mind when preparing your talk. The first is that the audience consists primarily of first-year masters students (and faculty). Broad-based talks are best; very detailed technicalities won't go over as well.

We'd like to offer you an honorarium of $150 in gratitude for the effort you'll put into preparing and delivering your talk.

Of course, if I've forgotten anything, please don't hesitate to ask.

Dear Lenny,

I am pleased to invite you to speak in the CSU Channel Islands Mathematics Seminar on 9/30/2009. We look forward to hearing your talk On the Frobenius Coin-Exchange Problem.

I'll send directions to CSUCI as well as a campus map indicating where you can pick up a parking permit (there will be one waiting for you with your name on it). I'll plan to be in the vicinity of the library from approximately 5 p.m. on to meet you once you arrive. If you have any trouble getting here or finding your way once on campus, please call me. My cell number is 805-807-2791. The Graduate Seminar meets in the Broome Library, room 2325.

I'll open up the seminar room at 5:30; either I or someone else will provide refreshments about that time. The talk itself is from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. (Ideally you'd finish a few minutes before 7 p.m. so there'd be some time for questions.)

You might keep a few things in mind when preparing your talk. The first is that the audience consists primarily of first-year masters students (and faculty). Broad-based talks are best; very detailed technicalities won't go over as well.

We'd like to offer you an honorarium of $150 in gratitude for the effort you'll put into preparing and delivering your talk.

Of course, if I've forgotten anything, please don't hesitate to ask.

I look forward to seeing you on Wednesday, September 30.

Hi Mary,

Is it OK to start handing off Payee Data Records and invitations as they come in? I've highlighted the names of the speakers to whom we'll be giving stipends below. I'm sending out the Payee Data Records to them and asking them to return them when they come to speak. So – if it's OK with you – I'll be handing you Data Records and invitations throughout the semester.

Thanks,

Cindy
