Requirements and Signatures

Please provide the following in your application:

1. Brief Activity Description.

The funding contributed to the continuation of a lecture series entitled “Global Histories and Their Futures” designed to a number of prominent world historians residing in southern California to Channel Islands. The requested funding will cover a lecture (Fall 2012). The scholar will give public lectures about relevant issues and themes pertinent to the field of world history. Similarly, the speaker will introduce history majors and other interested students and members of the community to ongoing research in the field of world history. The lecture will also contribute to a greater awareness of CI among established campuses in the California region. This networking process will play a crucial role in future student placement in graduate and credentialing programs around the state.

2. Relation to IRA to Course Offerings. History 211 (World Civilizations to 1500);

History 212 (World Civilizations since 1500); History 365 (Themes of World

History); History 366 (Oceans of World History); History 492 (Internship and Service Learning).

3. Activity Assessment: The lectures will be part of the courses outlined above and provide stimulating material for in-class discussion. Publications associated with the scholar serves as discussion material and students attending the lectures will be asked to write a brief reflection paper on the material presented.

4. Activity Budget: $ 600 honorarium and $ 300 in-state travel allowance

5. Sources of Activity Support. No other sources of support are requested or needed for this activity.
