Brief Activity Description. Describe the activity and its relationship to the educational objectives of the students' program or major.

Cal State University Channel Islands will sponsor a lecture on the "Save Ethnic Studies" movement in Arizona by Chicano studies scholar Rodolfo F. Acuña and a free screening of the documentary "Precious Knowledge." The event is open to the public free of charge.

Students in four programs—Chicano Studies, Education, Sociology, University & History departments will benefit from watching the film, reading selected works, dialoging with Professor Acuña, and writing about what they have learned. The two related events include:

1. Film Screening of Precious Knowledge: "Precious Knowledge" is a documentary that chronicles the struggle for ethnic studies in Arizona. It follows the lives of several Tucson High School students and their battle to preserve their Mexican American studies classes.
2. Book Presentation & Q & A Discussion: Professor Rodolfo F. Acuña is a Chicana and Chicano studies professor at Cal State Northridge. His latest book is "The Making of Chicana/o Studies: In the Trenches of Academe" (2011, Rutgers University Press). It traces the philosophy and historical development of the field of Chicana and Chicano studies — from precursor movements to the Civil Rights era to today — focusing on those allied against the discipline. Acuña is a leader, activist, scholar and founding member of the movement to establish the curriculum in the California State University system, which serves as a national model. He will talk about his book and then discuss the film, Precious Knowledge about the struggle for ethnic studies in Arizona.
