AFS 202 Introduction to Africana Studies

Learning Outcomes & Relation to Course Offering

1. Use digital storytelling to interpret their own social practices and ways of being in relation to the construction of Blackness and whiteness as modes of social difference.
2. Develop a final project that synthesizes key course topics, for example through analysis of a local, national, or transnational issue.
3. Use digital storytelling to describe and actively engage with anti-racist and anti-colonial practices of self-making and self-reflection.
