2. Calendaring of action steps should be somewhat flexible as tasks like external reviewer scheduling can be challenging.
3. A report template for the external reviewer would be helpful.

Caroline Doll – some departments in Finance & Administration (OPC, Parking, Accounts Payable and Accounting) have participated in the systemwide customer satisfaction surveys administered by the Chancellor’s Office. Results are expected soon.

CAIR (California Association for Institutional Research) conference
Nelle Moffett provided a brief overview of a software program (TaskStream), which may aid the university in managing assessment processes.

Nelle Moffett has expressed interest in becoming the new Chair of the Assessment Council.

After receiving favorable responses from those present, Dennis Muraoka agreed to compose a recommendation for review by all members before forwarding to Dr. Rush for approval.
Assessment Activities Reports
Caroline Doll – due to the diverse nature of the departments within the division of Finance and Administration, assessment activities vary widely. Examples include surveys administered by the Chancellor’s Office through the Quality Improvement Program. Efforts are being made to map processes in order to facilitate communication and understanding, as well as document for analysis to identify potential areas for improvement. Support offered in the past by the Chancellor’s Office will be reduced in the coming year due to budget constraints; no surveys will be offered and consulting services will be limited.
