Break-out Session Information

Session Track Descriptions

To support emerging student needs and current system-wide efforts, we are highlighting programs and resources related to the following themes during this year’s conference:

- Aware Awake Alive at the CSU
- Tobacco Prevention Initiatives and Education
- Policies and Procedures to Support ATOD Prevention
- Student-Involved Prevention
- ATOD Research and Innovation

Break-out Session I: Thursday, April 3, 1:30 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

1A – Interactive Workshop: Lessons Learned from Bystander Intervention Prevention of Sexual and Relationship Violence and Stalking, Jane Stapleton, M.A. (co-director of Prevention Innovations, lead developer and evaluator of Know-Your-Power®)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: N/A

1B – Interactive Workshop: Aware Awake Alive - Plug & Play Best Practices, Lisa Dow and David Wyatt (Aware Awake Alive) and Andrene Kaiwi-Lenting (Cal Poly San Luis Obispo)
Target Audience: Attendees from the first January CSU Plug & Play session
Session Track: Aware Awake Alive

1C – Panel: The Nuts and Bolts of Implementing a Smoke/Tobacco-Free Policy at Your College or University, Narayana Darst (CSU Fullerton), Doug Everhart and Jasmine Blackburn (UC Irvine), Carlos Carrio (CSU San Bernardino), Kimberlee Homer Vagadori (California Youth Advocate Network), Julie Chobdee (UC Riverside)
Target Audience: Undergraduate Students
Session Track: Tobacco Prevention Initiatives and Education
1D – Combined Session Panel on Student Involved Prevention
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Student-Involved Prevention

Protect Your Friends. Save a Life. Be a WATCHDOG, Georgianna Negron Long, Elizabeth Lopez, Haleema Alyafaie, James Westrick, Lorena Saavedra and Arcellie Santos (CSU Fresno) and Turn Up: Spartans, How Loud is Too Loud, Liz Romero and Nicholas Bell (San Jose State University)

1E – Research Presentation: Using Local Data to Inform Prevention Strategies: Place of Last Drink Survey Findings, Janet Kaplan (Ventura County Behavioral Health Department), Erica Pachmann (Evalcorp Research and Consulting), Kim O’Neil (Project SAFER)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Policies and Procedures to Support ATOD Prevention

Break-out Session II: Thursday, April 3, 2:45 p.m. - 3:45 p.m.

2A – Lecture: Cessation Strategies for an Evolving Landscape of Tobacco Products and Use Patterns Among College Students, Beth Olagues (California Youth Advocacy Network)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Tobacco Prevention Initiatives and Education

2B – Interactive Workshop: The Easy Way to Begin or Expand Recovery Support on Your Campus, Jenna Parisi (Transforming Youth Recovery) and Albert Angelo (CSU San Bernardino)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: N/A

2C – Combined Panel on Sexual Violence Prevention
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Student-Involved Prevention

Collaborating to Provide Culturally Appropriate ATOD and Sexual Violence Workshops for Athletes, Michael Ritter, Karla Castillo and Laurene Dominguez (San Francisco State University) and The FratMANers Program at SDSU, Stephanie Waits (San Diego State University)

2D – Panel: Responsible Hospitality on Campus: Taking it to the Next Level, Doug Everhart, Jack McManus and Joe Reiss (UC Irvine)
Target Audience: Undergraduate Students
Session Track: Policies and Procedures to Support ATOD Prevention

2E – Interactive Workshop: Party Classy, Nicholas Bell, Kelly Walker and Vivian Luong (San Jose State University)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Student-Involved Prevention
Evening Reception: Thursday, April 3, 4:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.
Join us for student speeches, special guests, poster presentations, and the Vendor Expo!

Poster Presentations at the Broome Library Plaza

Alive and Well Peer Health Education Program: A Closer Look Into Peer Training, Programming and Evaluation, Susan Krikorian and Ani Hagopian (CSU Northridge)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Student-Involved Prevention

Policy Revision that Promotes Responsible Drinking at the California Maritime Academy, Ian Wallace and Mitchell Kobayashi (California Maritime Academy)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Policies and Procedures to Support ATOD Prevention

Prevent the Problem: Two Innovative Strategies to Encourage Positive Coping Behaviors, Kirsten Mar, Fernando Diaz and Ty Ramsower (Cal Poly Pomona)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Student-Involved Prevention

Using Telehealth Technology to Improve Access to Substance Abuse Treatment, Gloria Miele (Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: N/A

I Don’t Like the Pub: Reflections on Research into Pre-loading, Adrian Barton (Plymouth University)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: N/A

Examining Your Relationship to AOD: A Primary Tool in Your Path to Wellness, Kimberly Prendergast and Wesley Flanagan (Mission Oaks Counseling and Wellness Center)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: N/A

Alcohol Privilege Certification Program - Housing and Residential Education, CSU Channel Islands, Venessa Griffith and Gary Gordon (CSU Channel Islands)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: N/A

The Impact of Social Media and Mobile Technology on Health Behavior Change: Recent Findings Form a Smartphone Application for Smoking Cessation, Siobhan Bulfin (Social Code)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: N/A
Break-out Session III: Friday, April 4, 9:15 a.m. - 10:15 a.m.

Target Audience: All
Session Track: Aware Awake Alive

3B – Interactive Workshop: Gaucho FYI, Jacqueline Kurta, Mark Shishim, Don Lubach and Marjan Riazi (UC Santa Barbara)
Target Audience: Student Affairs Programmers and Service Providers
Session Track: Student-Involved Prevention

3C – Interactive Workshop: Students Talking About Relationships and Sex (STARS) Peer Theater, Cathy Nguyen (CSU San Marcos)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Student-Involved Prevention

Target Audience: All
Session Track: Student-Involved Prevention

3E – Other: RADD California Coalition: Research Summit, Dr. James Lange (San Diego State University) and Erin Meluso (RADD, The Entertainment Industry’s Voice for Road Safety)
Target Audience: Student Affairs Programmers and Service Providers
Session Track: N/A

Break-out Session IV: Friday, April 4, 10:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

4A – Combined Panel on Marijuana-related Topics
Guest Moderator: Dr. James Lange
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Student-Involved Prevention

Puff or Pass? Mufaro Zakers (San Jose State University), Karla Castillo and Laurene Dominguez (San Francisco State University) and San Francisco State University and Marijuana Outreach for Students: Finding the Path of Least Resistance, Lupe Samaniego-Kraus, Lily Earnest and Blanka Pentek (UC San Diego)

Target Audience: All
Session Track: Aware Awake Alive
4C – Panel: Talkin’ Dolphins - Promoting Individual Healing and Growth, Dr. Neil Rocklin, Dr. Wm. Gregory Sawyer, Dr. Jennifer Miller, Emily Beane, Marina Herrera, and James Forrester (CSU Channel Islands)
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Student-Involved Prevention

4D – Combined Panel on E-Cigarettes
Target Audience: All
Session Track: Tobacco Prevention Initiatives and Education

E-Cigarettes - What We Know and How to Respond, Kimberlee Homer Vagadori and Beth Olagues (California Youth Advocacy Network) and The Challenges with E-Cigarettes on College Campuses, Carlos Carrio (CSU San Bernardino)

4E – Interactive Workshop: Step Up! Bystander Intervention, Doug Everhart (UC Irvine)
Target Audience: Undergraduate Students
Session Track: N/A