MESSAGE FROM THE VICE PRESIDENT

For more than a decade, the Division of Student Affairs (DSA) at CSU Channel Islands (CI) has been committed to, and engaged in, strategic and collaborative planning. It is the planning process, and the results from this process, that help to blend the DSA's diverse personnel and operations into a cohesive, effective, and efficient unit. As the University has grown, so too have the needs of our students. As such, the DSA's strategic planning process, which is intentionally designed based on student needs, called for a realignment of priorities that would assist in the efforts of serving students, the institution, and our community at-large.

At the start of the 2014-2015 Academic Year, members of the Division were challenged to rethink the purpose of their department and area, to reinvest in the Division's core values, to realign their professional commitment with the DSA purpose, to rediscover their inspiration and motivation in making a difference in the lives of others, and finally, to redefine and recalibrate their metrics of quality and excellence. Based on the construct of "RE," Student Affairs began the 2015-2020 strategic planning process by reviewing the DSA's existing guiding principles. During the Fall retreat, the Executive Council reviewed the Division's vision, mission (purpose), and core values. While these principles have served the Division and the University for well over a decade, it was time to review them in order to ensure their relevance for today's programs and services. While this reevaluation did affirm our existing principles, slight modifications were made to both the vision and mission statements. In order to better capture our current practices and to respond to the changing needs of CI, and our students, both the vision and mission statements were revised. The revised statements were shared with the entire Division staff for feedback. We utilized this inclusive process to ensure that the needs, perspectives, and services provided by the Division were captured. I am happy to report that the resounding sentiment in Student Affairs is that the core values of collaboration, commitment, diversity, excellence, and integrity still resonate among staff. Yet, there was a need to better define each of the values. I asked the Division staff to join me in defining our core values. As a result of these changes, it was determined that the previously used DSA goals and core emphases were no longer necessary because they were captured within other Division priorities. I could not be more proud of the self-reflection and re-defining that has taken place in Student Affairs. These changes will assist us as we move forward over the next five years, operating with an intentional and aligned purpose.

The Division's guiding principles, reaffirm the core values while refocusing our purpose. Each area within the DSA was charged with creating their strategic plan, while keeping the clearly focused vision, mission, and core values at the center of the process. Each area was asked to draft a plan which mirrored the priorities and aims of the University Strategic Plan. Over the course of the next five years, the DSA will focus on the following priorities:

- facilitating student success;
- providing high quality education; and
- realizing our future.

The 2015-2020 DSA Strategic Plan, like our three previous Strategic Plans (2002-2005; 2005-2011; 2011-2015) has been written as a living document, subject to ongoing modifications and changes. Also implied in our Plan is an unwavering commitment to the "CI Way." I continue to be impressed with the quantity and quality of work that staff of Student Affairs produce year after year. Our 2015-2020 Strategic Plan will serve as a blueprint for success for the next five years.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Wm. Gregory Sawyer". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large, stylized "S" at the end.

Wm. Gregory Sawyer, Ph.D.

Vice President

Division of Student Affairs

THE CLASS OF MILLION

The California State University

The California State University (CSU) reached a significant milestone of 3 million alumni during commencement in spring 2015 and has launched the world's largest yearbook. The Class of 3 Million online yearbook is an interactive platform where alumni can create a profile and connect with the millions of other alumni from the 23 CSU campuses across the state. Alumni who sign up for the yearbook will also be entered into a special contest to win one of three $10,000 scholarships for a current or future student, sponsored by Herff Jones. For more information about the yearbook and the Class of 3 Million, visit classof3million.calstate.edu.

University Mission

Placing students at the center of the educational experience, California State University Channel Islands provides undergraduate and graduate education that facilitates learning within and across disciplines through integrative approaches, emphasizes experiential and service learning, and graduates students with multicultural and international perspectives.

University Mission-Based Centers

- Center for Community Engagement
- Center for Integrative Studies
- Center for International Affairs
- Center for Multicultural Engagement

Institutional Mission-Based Learning Outcomes

CI graduates will possess an education of sufficient breadth and depth to appreciate and interpret the natural, social and aesthetic worlds and to address the highly complex issues facing societies. Graduates will be able to:

- Identify and describe the modern world and issues facing societies from multiple perspectives including those within and across disciplines, cultures and nations (when appropriate).
- Analyze issues, and develop and convey to others solutions to problems using the methodologies, tools and techniques of an academic discipline.

University Strategic Priorities

I. Facilitate student success

- Provide University access to students who bring diverse perspectives
- Provide a mission-driven education that prepares students for individual success as they become contributing members of society
- Provide support for student persistence toward degree completion and opportunity for timely graduation

II. Provide high-quality education

- Hire and support high quality faculty and staff who are committed to the mission of the University
- Infuse integrative approaches, community engagement, multicultural learning, and international perspectives into all aspects of learning
- Engage undergraduate and graduate students in research and creative activities

III. Realize our future

- Build infrastructure capacity
- Leverage the use of technology
- Seek, cultivate, and steward resources both public and private
- Implement collaborative planning and accountability processes

Strategic Planning Process

In alignment with the 2015-2020 University's strategic planning process, the Division of Student Affairs (DSA) developed a Strategic Plan that supported the University's Strategic Priorities. The development of our current DSA Strategic Plan began in the last year of the previous strategic plan cycle and simultaneously with the University's strategic planning process.

Upon the completion of a draft University plan, the Division utilized the University's strategic priorities to co-develop area-specific aims and objectives in a DSA strategic plan. The area of Assessment and Strategic Operations (ASO) within the DSA, in consultation with the Vice President for Student Affairs (VPSA), guided this process for the Division through active collaboration with each area head and the work of the Drafting Committee (as identified by the VPSA). The Drafting Committee conducted a preliminary review of all area submissions for the Division Strategic Plan and submitted a final draft to the VPSA for review. All area submission revisions were done in consultation with the respective area heads.

The next step in the Division's strategic planning process included an invitation to a diverse constituent group of faculty, staff and students to provide an external review of the draft DSA Strategic Plan. The feedback from external reviewers was reviewed by the Drafting Committee in consultation with the area heads, and modifications to the plan were made accordingly. The final recommendations were then provided to the VPSA for approval.

Relying on active collaboration with area heads, ASO was charged by the VPSA with ensuring that each step in the strategic planning process from concept, creation, design, content, distribution as well as the assessment and evaluation is carried through. As a result, ASO created an appropriate assessment and evaluation tool to evaluate progress towards accomplishing identified objectives. After a training period, the DSA area heads will work with their respective areas to collect assessment and evaluation measures. The aggregated data and report will be provided annually to the VPSA for review (in conjunction with the DSA annual report).

A final step in the Division's strategic planning process is to ensure that the previous Strategic Plan has been assessed and evaluated. The Drafting Committee will work with area heads to prepare an executive summary for the VPSA to record the culmination of the DSA 2011-2016 Strategic Plan.

• Provide access to mental health counseling for students with various psychological issues

Aim B: Provide a mission-driven education that prepares students for individual success and to become contributing members of society
Objectives
• Create co-curricular leadership opportunities within Campus Recreation that provide knowledge and skill development through experiential education
• Educate students, faculty and staff on life-long healthy lifestyle choices
• Identify wellness programs and initiatives that decrease impediments to academic performance
• Provide student suicide prevention training to faculty and staff
• Provide short-term mental health services to students identified in need

Aim C: Provide support for student persistence toward degree completion and timely graduation

Objectives

- Provide mental and physical health interventions for requesting students
- Create accountability and commitment through recreation and wellness promotion and education participation
- Provide recreational opportunities for students, faculty and staff that promote physical fitness, stress management and self-esteem

University Strategic Priority II: Provide high-quality education

Aim A: Hire and support high-quality faculty and staff who are committed to the mission of the University

Objectives

- Hire additional professional staff and faculty to provide quality mental health screening and intervention
- Hire additional health and wellness education professionals to provide comprehensive physical health opportunities for students, faculty and staff including fitness, nutrition, stress management, ATOD awareness, and sexual health
- Hire recreation professionals to provide leadership development and physical health opportunities for the campus community
- Hire intercollegiate athletics personnel to plan and implement a quality program which produces scholar athletes and recognition for the University
- Design and implement a wellness peer education program

Aim B: Infuse integrative approaches, community engagement, multicultural learning, and international perspectives into all aspects of learning

Objectives

- Develop relationships with local school districts, local government agencies, community agencies, and the local community to provide safe boating and other outdoor recreational and educational opportunities
- Create an inventory of current and prospective wellness collaborations and partnerships for Wellness Promotion and Education*
- Conduct quarterly research within each program unit to investigate new approaches that facilitate community engagement promoting health and wellness
- Offer programs within Wellness Promotion and Education and Counseling and Psychological Services to assist students returning from study abroad programs with the re-acclimation process

Aim C: Engage undergraduate and graduate students in research and creative activities

Objectives

- Provide opportunities for student staff to have an integral role in planning and designing wellness programs through committee participation
- Encourage students to have an active voice in decision-making processes that create campus community
- Charge Peer Mentors with the creation and maintenance of an inventory of wellness programs and services as a resource for the campus
- Encourage students to participate in the America College Health Association's survey on a bi-annual basis and use the data to assist in program development

University Strategic Priority III: Realize our future

Aim A: Build infrastructure capacity

Objectives

- Continue to provide a confidential environment for counseling and student health services
- Provide the quantity of counselors to exceed the International Association of Counseling Services standard of counselors to student ratio
- Develop a comprehensive space and facility plan to meet the future growth needs of the area
- Build a recreation center to meet the growing needs of the students and campus community
- Build athletic facilities to support the implementation of an intercollegiate athletics program at the NCAA DII level

Aim B: Leverage the use of technology

Objectives

- Create on-line registration and communication tools for intramural sports and sports clubs
- Develop a wellness promotion social media strategy
- Develop a comprehensive website for each program
- Create short instructional and informational videos for student use; topics will include stress management, fitness guidelines and sleep awareness

Aim C: Seek, cultivate and steward resources, both public and private

Objectives

- Improve marketing efforts in order to operate more collaboratively with on-campus and outside community entities*
- Collaborate with University Advancement to identify resources to create and operate an intercollegiate athletics program*
- Build partnerships with community members to enhance recreational opportunities for CI students, faculty and staff

Aim D: Implement collaborative planning and accountability processes

Objectives

- Expand existing collaborative efforts with faculty and staff to offer fitness class opportunities to CI students, faculty and staff memberships*
- Create a mental health advisory committee to assist CAPS in providing mental health activities and awareness
- Complete the Program Planning, Implementation, Assessment and Quality Improvement Model for each program
- Complete the DSA CPR process for each program
- Participate in on-going assessment and evaluation efforts

Introduction to CSU Channel Islands (CI) Division of Student Affairs (DSA) Assessment

Programs and services that support co-curricular learning and development are expected to undergo regular assessment and evaluation processes to ensure that students are learning and developing as a result of strategies.

In partnership with the Director of Student Affairs Assessment, Research and Staff Development, areas regularly review information collected from assessment and evaluation processes to help refine planning, implementation, and assessment processes. Additionally, the VPSA Assessment Council regularly discusses functional area needs regarding day-to-day assessment efforts and Comprehensive Program Review (CPR) for each area (Assessment and Strategic Operations, Associated Students Inc., Housing and Residential Education, Student Life, and Wellness and Athletics).

Assessment and evaluation processes are also supported by regular training opportunities offered through the DSA Training Program. The purpose of the training program is to support and reinforce the Division's core values (collaboration, commitment, diversity, integrity, and excellence) while encouraging a community that enhances learning and development for all staff members. Training topics are determined annually as a result of a Division-wide needs assessment. For example, previous topics include: Student Development Theory, Diversity, Customer Service, Assessment Tools, Program Planning, WASC, TK20, Qualtrics, IRB, and Assessment Planning.

CI DSA Day-to-Day Assessment of Student Learning & Development

The Division utilizes a Cycle of Assessment to support measures connected to the University and Division mission for all co-curricular programs and activities to support student learning and development. Specifically:

DSA Assessment Terms and Concepts

Program: A set of planned systematic activities using managed resources to achieve aims related to needs of identified individuals or groups in a specific context. In student affairs, this might be a department or a collection of intentionally planned events and activities.

- Purpose: Programs have a clearly articulated purpose statement or the object(s) toward which it strives and/or exists. In the student-centered culture that we operate, this purpose is connected to the learning and development needs of CI students.
- Aims: Programs have a set of aims or general expected outcomes, which, if accomplished, meet a specific need of the program.
- Objectives: Programs have a set of objectives or specific aim-related expected outcomes, which, if accomplished, lead to the success of that aim.
- Student Needs Assessment: A process by which information about student needs is collected, synthesized, and interpreted to assist in matching student needs with programmatic strategies for addressing them.
- Student Learning Objectives: Describe what a student is expected to know (cognitive), be (affective) or do (behavior) at the end of the program, activity, event or intervention.
- Strategy: Planned arrangements of activities, events, and/or interventions designed to support program objectives.

Program Assessment: The process of collecting information about student learning and performance to thereby improve the learning.

- Student Learning Outcomes: Describe what a student actually knows, understands or is able to do at the end of the program, activity, event or intervention.

Program Evaluation: An on-going process designed to monitor and improve a program's effectiveness.

- Program Outcomes: The accumulation of all outcomes accomplished as a result of a program, strategy and/or event; the actual results.

CI DSA Comprehensive Program Review (CPR) Model

The Division utilizes a CPR process to inform program improvement and identify opportunities for future development. CAS* standards are utilized as metrics for the entire process.

The process is as follows:

1. Self-Study Phase, a program review phase that involves members of the Division of Student Affairs;
2. Site Review Phase, a program review phase that includes faculty, staff and administrators; and
3. Outside Professional Reviewer Phase, a program review phase that draws on the expertise of an outside professional.

The CPR process is co-directed by the Area Heads for each unit and the Director of Student Affairs Assessment, Research, and Staff Development in consultation with the Vice President of Student Affairs. Results are reviewed by the Area Head and Vice President for Student Affairs to inform continuous improvement opportunities for program areas.

**CAS (the Council for the Advancement of Standards in Higher Education) develops and disseminates standards that enhance the quality of a student's total learning experience in higher education. CAS collectively develops, examines, and endorses standards and guidelines for program and service areas in higher education.*

Future assessment and evaluation processes, trainings, and collaborations will be regularly reviewed and updated as needed to best support the strategic goals and initiatives of the 2015-2020 DSA Strategic Plan. For example, during the summer of 2015, each area will identify key strategies (example provided below) that support University strategic priorities. For the strategies selected, assessment plans will be developed and key assessment and evaluation results shared on a pre-determined timeline (see sample at right).

Conclusion

As the Division continues to move forward with our strategic priorities we have a unique opportunity to assess and evaluate our progress on key strategies through yearly recording and sharing key data during our annual reporting process. In the summer/fall of 2015, program leads will identify key strategies and associated assessment and/or evaluation measures that will map progress related to the objectives associated with the DSA Strategic Plan. After these key assessment and evaluation results are collected, program leads will share results in the DSA annual report. Yearly, the DSA will review these results collectively and discuss connections to the DSA Strategic Plan and CI Strategic Plan and explore opportunities for support of strengths and corrections of identified weakness to ensure that key strategies are supporting the growth and development of CI students.
