Responding to the Climate Crisis

Ecocultural Identities and the Value of Nature on a Disrupted Planet

4 PM Thurs. November 4th

Zoom: <https://bit.ly/3CBR5Mj>

How might climate-induced events shift our understanding of humans' ecocultural role?

Can human-centered values support an adequate response to the climate crisis?

Join us for an interdisciplinary conversation between Dr. José Castro-Sotomayor (Communication) and Dr. Brendan Cline (Business Ethics) as they discuss the climate crisis and suggest ways humans can play a role in saving our planet and ourselves.
