MISSION STATEMENT
Placing students at the center of the educational experience, California State University Channel Islands (CSUCI) provides undergraduate and graduate education that facilitates learning within and across disciplines through integrative approaches, emphasizes experiential and service learning, and graduates students with multicultural and international perspectives.

MISSION-BASED LEARNING OUTCOMES
CSUCI graduates will possess an education of sufficient breadth and depth to appreciate and interpret the natural, social and aesthetic worlds and to address the highly complex issues facing societies.
Graduates will be able to:
• Identify and describe the modern world and issues facing societies from multiple perspectives including those within and across disciplines, cultures and nations (when appropriate).
• Analyze issues, and develop and convey to others solutions to problems using the methodologies, tools and techniques of an academic discipline.

UNIVERSITY MASCOT
A petition was presented to CSUCI by local Chumash leaders that the dolphin be the University’s official mascot to reflect the Chumash origin legend of dolphins leading the Chumash people from the Channel Islands to the mainland. CSUCI officially adopted the dolphin as its mascot in March 1999.

In fall 2004, Student Government held an election to name our dolphin mascot and the name “Tsunami” was selected. On Dec. 26, 2004 a large earthquake and tsunami occurred in the Indian Ocean (Indonesia) and subsequently, Student Government determined that it would be insensitive and inappropriate to name our dolphin mascot, Tsunami. The dolphin mascot continued without an official name until spring 2012 when Student Government held another election to name our mascot and “Ekho” was selected. The name was selected due to echolocation abilities that dolphins possess and because it represents the student voice. The spelling of “Ekho” was selected as unique to our dolphin mascot.

UNIVERSITY COLORS
The school colors of CSUCI are red and silver. The red is consistent with the tradition of the region, and the silver is for the dolphin, the University mascot.

PRESIDENT’S MEDALLION AND NECKLACE
The President’s Medallion was created in honor of Erika D. Beck’s tenure at the helm of CSUCI. The medallion’s design mirrors the Art Deco elements found throughout the campus’ Mission-Revival and Spanish Colonial-Revival architecture. The Bell Tower and many other campus buildings bear the distinctive circles and semi-circles; the shell imprint crowns numerous doorways. The medallion’s radiating rays symbolize a dawn of new leadership and the light of knowledge. The central pearl is inspired by the cherished necklace worn almost daily by President Beck; a gift from her late mother who instilled in her the importance of education. Like oysters creating pearls, CSU Channel Islands doesn’t shy away from challenging beginnings, but rather uses the talent throughout its campus and community to create opportunity and light for all.

The medallion is attached to a necklace created by the Barbareño/Ventureño Band of Mission Indians from Santa Barbara and Ventura Counties. It is composed of black handmade chlorite schist beads, a traditional Chumash material used for both ornament and tools. Goose down feathers woven into the cordage symbolize fortune and blessings “raining” into this world from the upperworld. Shell beads, resembling ’áltšum (Chumash shell bead money), emerge in three strands between the beads and represent the harmony of the three sacred elements: fire, water and wind.

BACHELOR’S GOWNS
Traditional bachelor’s gowns are black, fall to just above the ankle, feature a pleated yoke and twin front fabric panels, and have straight-bottomed sleeves. The gown is designed to be worn closed.

MASTER’S GOWNS
Master’s gowns are black and have closed, oblong sleeves, open at the wrist. The gown may be worn open or closed. The master’s hood is 3.5 feet in length and the velvet trim reflects the recipient’s discipline and is three inches wide.

DOCTORAL GOWNS
Doctoral gowns have bell-shaped sleeves, featuring three velvet bars on each sleeve, and vertical velvet panels down each side of the gown at the gown opening. There is also a hood that reflects the recipient’s discipline.

The following colors are associated with the degrees frequently represented in academic processions:

1. Sing we now of Channel Islands, Alma Mater dear.

2. From the islands to the mountains, to the mighty shore,

Raise a song of friendship and sing for all to hear.
Cal State Channel Islands shall stand for ever more.

We shall always stand united, onward we shall sail!
Even in adversity the Dolphins shall prevail!
To hearts and hands together, all Hail! Hail! Hail!
thee our Alma Mater, all Hail! Hail! Hail!
A MESSAGE FROM CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
CHANCELLOR TIMOTHY P. WHITE

Dear Class of 2020:

Congratulations on achieving this consequential milestone on the journey of a lifetime.

I am sure that, when you look back upon your commencement in the years to come, it will be with mixed emotions. Most often, you’ll be filled with pride and a powerful – and well-earned – sense of accomplishment. Perhaps sometimes you’ll relive a sense of amazement at attaining a goal that, at times, felt more than a little daunting. At other times, you may feel disappointment because of the unique and disruptive challenges brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic. I understand. The culmination of your college experience was not as you had expected – a virtual celebration following months of virtual learning, made necessary by this global public health crisis of historic proportions.

On this last point, it is my hope that you will also remember the ingenuity, adaptability, resilience and indomitable spirit you, your classmates, and your faculty and staff have demonstrated during these unprecedented and challenging times. I know I will. I will forever admire the class of 2020, and you will always hold a special place in my heart. And I have every confidence that the qualities that you have shown through these difficult days will continue to serve you well as you encounter life’s inevitable periods of hardship and uncertainty.

So today, we celebrate you – and all the hard work, perseverance and scholarship that brought you to this day.

Of course, you did not make this journey alone. We also recognize the faculty who deepened your knowledge and inspired you to see the world from new perspectives. We acknowledge the counselors, advisors, librarians, coaches and support staff who championed you at every turn. And indeed, we appreciate the family, friends and loved ones who encouraged you, uplifted you and supported you along the way. Please remember to thank these important people, and let them know how much their support means.

We call today’s celebration a “commencement” because it is not an end, but rather a new beginning. As you start the next chapter of your life, I urge you to continue to wholeheartedly pursue knowledge, truth and innovation, and to strive to elevate your community, state, nation and – indeed – the world, as you achieve your personal and professional goals.

And I encourage you to stay in contact with your campus and the larger California State University community. Connect with classmates, seek out faculty as mentors and join alumni chapters. Look for opportunities to inspire and support future generations who seek to follow in your footsteps.

As a proud CSU graduate myself, I welcome you to the world’s largest and most influential alumni community – more than 3.8 million strong.

On behalf of the entire California State University, again, congratulations to the truly remarkable class of 2020.

Sincerely,

Timothy P. White
Chancellor
Dear Class of 2020:

Congratulations on reaching this momentous milestone in your lives! While our Commencement ceremony this year is being held virtually rather than in-person, our excitement for your accomplishment is just as robust. If you listen very carefully, you may even be able to hear the thousands of people cheering for you just as they would have from the Central Mall!

I have never been prouder to lead this university than I have been throughout these last few months. The true spirit of the Dolphin Pod has shown through in so many incredible ways. Your faculty transitioned to a fully virtual teaching and learning environment in the matter of a couple short weeks and you, our students, have shown incredible perseverance and grit in navigating these changes. The entire campus community is extremely proud of you. You have put in a great deal of work to reach this moment and today, we honor it in full. Today is not an ending, but rather a beginning, a commencement.

You are now alumni and are forever woven into the fabric of this institution. Remember that you will always have a home at Cal State Channel Islands!

Congratulations, I look forward to seeing you become the leaders who will help us all realize a brighter and more equitable future.

Sincerely,

Erika D. Beck, Ph.D.
President
IRENE PINKARD

At her core, Dr. Irene Pinkard is an advocate for social justice and educational equity. Dr. Pinkard’s impressive, trailblazing career in educational leadership and local politics has showcased her unwavering commitment to community and educational excellence at all levels.

Dr. Pinkard has served on the Oxnard City Council, including a term as Mayor Pro Tempore, as well as Mayor. She is the first African American woman to serve on the Oxnard City Council. Prior to her service on the city council, Dr. Pinkard served for ten years as a Trustee on the Oxnard Union High School District board and was an administrator in the Ventura County Community College District, retiring in 2003 as Associate Vice Chancellor for Human Resources.

Dr. Pinkard was an educator and administrator in the Los Angeles Unified School District and Los Angeles Community College District and holds a bachelor’s degree in business and a master’s degree in counseling from Cal State Long Beach and a doctorate in educational psychology from Nova Southeastern University in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Dr. Pinkard is truly passionate about bettering the lives of those in her community. She, along with her late husband Bedford, founded the Pinkard Youth Institute to provide young African American students the opportunity to attend college.

Dr. Pinkard is a strong supporter and partner with California State University Channel Islands through the African American Enrichment Academy and most recently with the opening of the Bedford and Dr. Irene Pinkard Multicultural Living-Learning Community. Both programs serve to cultivate leadership and mentoring skills, foster a sense of belonging, and create more inclusive futures for our African American students.

In recognition of Dr. Pinkard’s extraordinary leadership within the education and public service sectors, the Board of Trustees of the California State University and California State University Channel Islands are proud to confer upon Dr. Pinkard the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

ESTHER WACHTELL

Esther Wachtell is an agent-of-change, a true visionary and a leader who looks for every opportunity to give back to and serve her community. Mrs. Wachtell’s career in organizational leadership and philanthropy has spanned decades and earned her wide regard as a master of her craft.

Mrs. Wachtell is the Founder and retired President of The Wachtell Group, a fundraising company that specializes in large scale fundraising efforts, and former President of the Music Center of Los Angeles. Wachtell graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Connecticut College and earned a Master of Arts degree from Cornell University.

Mrs. Wachtell’s fundraising accomplishments are momentous and make her a formidable force in the world of philanthropic giving. Mrs. Wachtell led the development campaign for the Children’s Hospital Los Angeles, which raised over $1 billion, the largest ever in the nation for a children’s hospital. In addition, she raised $4 million to rebuild the Libbey Bowl in Ojai and $7.5 million for the Museum of Ventura County after both venues suffered from years of declining investment.

Mrs. Wachtell’s partnership with California State University Channel Islands is strong and longstanding. She was one of the first individuals to give of her time, talent and treasure back while the university was still in its planning phase in the late 1990s. In 2017, she became a member of the Board of Directors of the CSUCI Foundation and has risen quickly to Board leadership, setting a strong example for others to follow.

In recognition of Mrs. Wachtell’s extraordinary philanthropic leadership in support of education, culture, children, and community, the Board of Trustees of the California State University and California State University Channel Islands are proud to confer upon Mrs. Wachtell the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.
