2018 Perception Study

Executive Summary

June 2018

Prepared by MACKENZIE Q&A research
Introduction

Background and Objectives

- California State University, Channel Islands (CSUCI) was interested in learning more about the awareness and perceptions of the university among current students, alumni, and the general public.

- Objectives included:
  - Gauge unaided awareness of CSUCI among the general population
  - Measure the awareness of CSUCI’s offerings among non-students who are aware of the university
  - Assess CSUCI on a variety of attributes
  - Learn about current opinions of the university
Methodology

- To explore the stated objectives, an online study was conducted among online panelists and current CSUCI students, alumni, donors, and others, including college counselors and CSUCI staff.

- A total of 1,860 surveys were completed in May and June 2018.

- Qualifications for online panelists include:
  - Have heard of CSUCI

- The survey was approximately 15 minutes in length.

- Differences between groups of interest were statistically conducted at the 95% confidence level.
  - Current Students (n=613)
  - Alumni (n=381)
  - Employees (n=234): 81 employees were alumni
  - All Others (n=632)
Executive Summary
UCLA and USC are the most known local universities, with CSUCI following closely in unaided awareness.

- Familiarity with CSUCI is fairly strong among non-students/non-alumni respondents.
