Disability Accommodations & Support Services

ACCESSIBILITY • ADVOCACY • INCLUSIVITY

We believe that accessibility is a shared responsibility of all campus community members.

California State University Channel Islands does not discriminate on the basis of disability in admission to, access to, or operation of its instruction, programs, services, or activities, or in its hiring and employment practices. The University provides reasonable accommodation to facilitate the participation of individuals with legally protected disabilities.

Ensuring the CSUCI educational experience is accessible to all students with disabilities.

Disability Accommodations & Support Services (DASS) upholds the University's commitment to serving the diverse educational needs of CI students and providing an accessible and inclusive campus community.
