Does this course content overlap with a course offered in your academic program? Yes ☒ No

If YES, what course(s) and provide a justification of the overlap.

There is some overlap with EDUC/HIST 445 in terms of identities in Latina/o children in families and society. This course, however, involves much more theoretical approaches within the disciplines of psychology and ethnic studies and attention to multiplicity of adult identities in various contexts.

Does this course content overlap a course offered in another academic area? Yes ☒ No

If YES, what course(s) and provide a justification of the overlap.

There is some overlap with EDSS 515, which has learning outcomes related to development of adolescent identity. The focus of EDSS 515 in this regard is on the role education and classroom experience plays to shape identity, which will be addressed by this new course, but this course involves much more theoretical approaches within the disciplines of psychology and ethnic studies, and attention to multiplicity of adult identities in various contexts.

Overlapping courses require Chairs' signatures.
