APPROVAL OF AGENDA

- Agenda: 12/10/2015
- Minutes: 12/03/2015

INFORMATIONAL AND DISCUSSION ITEMS

- Hidden prerequisites
 - For majors, from Chris Mallon: we do not have to fit absolutely within 120 units if many of them are “basic courses”. CSU Chico has >120 units in engineering. Apparently we can violate state law, y’know, when the CO feels like it. Or something.
 - For minors, should we revisit the minors cap if we count all the prerequisites?
 - Do we require an explicit policy on hidden prerequisites? A definition of a hidden prerequisite?
 - How are other CSUs dealing with this? What should count toward the 120 units?
 - Bottom line: on ESRM minor (and whatever else we come across), make people list the exact number of total units. Period.
