TL003: Time & Labor – TLSS Coordinator

INTRODUCTION

This guide provides step-by-step instructions for Department Coordinators to follow when viewing, modifying, and approving their student worker’s timesheet transactions in Time & Labor Self-Service (TLSS). The role of Department Coordinator is central to the TLSS process, as this individual will be considered the “subject matter expert” in his/her area(s) of responsibility.

Role:
- Department point of contact for TLSS questions and processes
- Liaison between department and Payroll for questions related to student pay
- Provides training to new student employees and Time Approvers, or directs them to online training resources
- Obtains paper timesheets when needed and maintains file in department after paper timesheets are returned from Payroll
- Reminds students and Approvers of submission and approval deadlines
- Department Option: Serve as a back-up Time Approver for department

Key Information:
- All hours worked must be recorded in the system and submitted for approval by the end of the month for which a student is reporting his/her time.
- Students are encouraged to track their time on a daily basis, and to discuss the expectations for doing so with their Approver and/or Coordinator.
- Student employees should not record any time before it is worked.
- Time for prior payroll cycles cannot be entered via TLSS, so a paper timesheet must be completed and submitted to the Approver and/or Department Coordinator for submission to Payroll.
  - When a paper timesheet is needed to handle such exceptions (e.g. late time sheets), the department is responsible for maintaining copies for audit purposes.

Please refer to the University Payroll Calendar for campus deadlines. The calendar is located at: http://www.csuci.edu/hr/documents/2013-2014payroll-calendar.pdf. Your department may enforce earlier deadlines, depending on your processing schedule.

Important note regarding HOLIDAYS:
Positive Pay employees are not eligible for paid holidays. The system does not alert the user if time worked is entered on a holiday.
During months containing holidays, be sure to verify that the employee doesn't accidentally enter hours on holidays (unless he/she worked) to ensure that your department is not overpaying the employee.

5) Select OK

Note: Selecting OK is the equivalent to your signature on a paper timesheet. It implies that you have verified that the time reported are actual hours worked by the employee.

C) Review and Correct Reported Time (Before Approvals)

Navigation: Main Menu > Manager Self Service > Approve Time and Exceptions > Reported Time

Corrections to timesheets can be made by the employee, (e.g. Paul Bunyan), as long as the hours have NOT been approved. Once hours have been approved, student employees will not be able to make corrections.

Before making any corrections within TLSS, Approvers/Coordinators are encouraged to consult with their employee, and ask the student to make changes, if possible. If the student cannot make the changes, the Approver or Coordinator may do so in the employee’s behalf. When an Approver/Coordinators changes time reported, they should add a comment to the record.

By law, the hours must be paid, but the employee should be counseled about CSU policy and the Approver should monitor the employee’s schedule more closely.

   • Enter comments.
   • Select Save

Continue with the approval process once all corrections have been made. Refer to Section B) Verify and Approve Reported Time.

D) Review and Correct Exceptions

Exceptions are posted once reported time is "Approved", and the Time Administration process is run. Time Administration is scheduled to run every day at:

- 10:00 AM
- 2:00 PM
- 6:00 PM

All exceptions should be reviewed on the Timesheet and corrected if possible prior to approving "Payable Time". There are different levels of exception Severity:

- High: Exception MUST be corrected. Time for this date will not be processed while in a “High” exception status.
- Medium: Hours can be approved, if it cannot be fixed.

The most common exceptions include:

- Student hours exceed 20 (Medium) – ok if student is working while classes are not in session (i.e. winter or spring break)
- More than 24 hours reported (in one day) (High) – Usually a keying error when the employee meant to enter time with a decimal point.

Processing Steps

Review Exceptions:

On the Timesheet, you will see an icon in the Exception column.

1) Click on the Exception icon.
