Domestic Partnership Benefits

All benefit eligible employees may enroll their domestic partners and eligible children in benefit programs as long as the Domestic Partnership is registered with California Secretary of State. Enrollment with the California State University must occur within 60 days or at open enrollment (normally in October each year to be eligible the following January).

Note: Domestic Partnership benefit eligibility requires that individuals register with the California Secretary of State. In order to be eligible for domestic partnership, your partner must be of the same sex or if a heterosexual couple meet age requirements (Both age 62 or older) stipulated in the regulations. If you have any questions regarding your eligibility please call Human Resources Programs at Ext. 8490. Please refer to specific benefits by going into the link below that compares coverage by classification or represented groups:
