II. COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

Beginner Korean aims to:

1. Enable you to read and write Korean letters.
2. Help you learn basic vocabulary and grammar.
3. Teach you how to introduce yourself in Korean.
4. Allow you to make simple expressions of intention.
5. Facilitate your understanding of various Korean cultures.

Beginner Korean is a class designed for those new to the Korean language. Initially, students learn to read and write Korean letters. Subsequently, they study vocabulary and grammar for each topic and engage in various activities and practices to apply their knowledge practically. The topics include self-introduction, places, weather, hopes, and food.

After completing this class, you will be able to communicate in Korean at a basic level.

III. COURSE MATERIALS

Required Text Book: Self-made PPT

IV. COURSEWORK, POLICIES, AND PROCEDURES

Attendance	20%
2 Exams	40%
Report (self-introduction)	15%
Presentation	15%
Participation	10%

- Exams

Two exams have been scheduled for this class. The test is multiple choice (read) and short answer (write). The test comes from what you've learned. Before the exam, anticipated questions are distributed in advance. Among them, 25 questions are set identically.

- Report & Presentation

Introduce yourself using the words and grammar you learned.

You can write at least 5 sentences.

And you can present your self-introduction in front of your friends.

You don't necessarily have to memorize the sentences.

- Participation

We engage in various activities during class, such as quizzes and role-playing. Active participation in these activities is necessary to receive scores.
