Brief Activity Description	This series of in-class concerts will bring top Los Angeles-based professional musicians from the classical music world to CI to perform for our Music In History (HIST/PAMU 337) students. Our guest artists will demonstrate and discuss significant musical compositions by some of the greatest composers of all time: J.S. Bach, Beethoven, Brahms, Claude Debussy, and others. The Baroque, Classical, Romantic, Impressionist, and Modern musical style periods will be represented and performed, giving students a rare up-close view of these masterworks being performed live by professional musicians. Our guest artists are active in the Hollywood recording studios, so they also bring a real world perspective to our students. There will be time allotted for our students to ask questions of our visiting artists. The music that will be presented corresponds directly with the style periods and major composers that we study in HIST/PAMU 337. Past students have registered their overwhelmingly support for these live concert events as being very helpful to gain a full understanding of the concepts that are presented in this course.
Learning Outcomes and Relation to IRA to Course Offerings	Performance dates were listed earlier on this application. HIST/PAMJ 337 Learning Outcomes: - Show, through writing, discussion and oral presentation, an understanding of the course content and convey the key points of this course to an audience of their peers: students will be required to write a detailed report about the concert/demonstrations, highlighting their observations and informed analysis of the music, based on what have learned in class. - Discuss key points in the history of music in the world. Our guests will discuss the lives and works of the composers whose works they perform. This gives the students a well-rounded historical appreciation for the formation of these musical masterworks, embedded within specific historical time periods. PAMJ 109/309: these performances will be very enlightening and educational for all PAstudents who are taking private music lessons at Cl. The dedication and extensive training of our promusical quests is evident in each note that they play. Students will have the opportunity to ask questions.

of these musical artists during the sessions.

PAMU 308 Outcomes:

Assessment report about this IRA event. My students will also be required to write a detailed report about what they observed and learned during the performance represes experience. The latter activity is part of our "Writing Across the Curriculum" campaign. Activity Budget Activity Budget Activity Budget Alistra		- Perform selected orchestral works using proper intonation and tone quality appropriate to the period and style of each work. Play in tune and blend with all other orchestral instruments. Play with correct articulation and rhythmic precision. Play with correct tone, bowing, and fingering techniques. Our students in our performing ensembles will observe all of the above qualities during these performances.
CIA Budget — CIA Proposal — Course Syllabus — CIA Certification — Other Sources of Funding . Target #1: the students in the course most directly linked to this proposal. (HIST/PAMJ 337) #2: all other PA students, faculty, and staff #4: members of the Camarillo, and venture Country communities. My students will be required to attend these events. I will also ask my colleagues in PA and other departments to have their students to attend these culturally enriching events. I will work closely with Cl's Media Department to produce printed advertising posters, and electronic/social media announcements to promote these events. My fellow PA and PAMJ instructors will also help to spread the word of these events to their classes. Bring Benefit to Campus Sustainability We do as much electronic/social media advertising as is possible. Only a few paper posters are produced to advertise these events (they are effective when posted in a few select high traffic locations).
