Learning Resource Center
Tutor Eligibility & Requirements

Tutor Eligibility

In order to be eligible for a tutoring position at the Learning Resource Center, undergraduate students must:

- Be enrolled in at least 6 semester units counting towards a degree program during the semester that he or she wishes to tutor;
- Meet the course completion requirements stated below;
- Meet the minimum requirements for all CSU Channel Islands student employees.

We strongly encourage that prospective tutors anticipate that he or she will be able to tutor for at least two semesters.

Minimum Course Requirements

In order to work as a tutor at the Learning Resource Center, students must exhibit a strong basis of knowledge and skills. Potential tutors must be proficient in the following courses in their field. Tutors must also secure at least one positive recommendation from a faculty member in his or her field.

Mathematics

Minimum Requirements

- Successful completion of Math 151 or equivalent;
- Tutor all mathematics courses numbered 150 and below (with the exception of Math 137).

Recommended

- Tutor mathematics courses numbered above 150;
- Tutor in math-related disciplines, such as physics or statistics.

Physics

Minimum Requirements

- Successful completion of Physics 200/201 sequence or equivalent;
- Tutor Physics 100, 101, 200, 201;
- Tutor all mathematics courses numbered 150 and below (with the exception of Math 137).

Recommended

- Tutor physics courses numbered above 201;
- Tutor mathematics courses numbered above 150.
Economics

Minimum Requirements
- Successful completion of Economics 110, 111, 310, and 311 from CI;
- Tutor Economics 110, 111, 310, and 311.

Recommended
- Tutor Economics 329;
- Tutor basic mathematics (Courses numbered Math 105 & below);
- Tutor accounting;
- Tutor Math 329 (statistics for business).

Accounting

Minimum Requirement
- Successful completion of Accounting 210 & 220;
- Tutor Accounting 210 & 220.

Recommended
- Tutor Accounting 300;
- Tutor economics;
- Tutor basic math (Courses numbered Math 105 & below);
- Tutor Math 329 (statistics for business).

Sociology

Minimum Requirements
- Tutor Sociology 100;
- Tutor statistics used in Sociology 202 and 303.

Recommended
- Tutor upper-division sociology electives;
- Tutor Sociology core courses, including 201, 350, 420 & 421;
- Strong writing skills (possible partnership with University Writing Center);
- Tutor basic math (Courses numbered Math 105 & below).

Psychology

Minimum Requirements
- Tutor Psychology 100;
- Tutor statistics used in Psychology 202.

Recommended
- Tutor upper-division psychology electives;
- Tutor Psychology 300 & 301 research methods;
- Tutor Psychology core courses, including 213, 310, 312, 313, 314, 317, & 318;
- Strong writing skills (possible partnership with University Writing Center);
- Tutor basic math (Courses numbered Math 105 & below).
Biology, Chemistry, ESRM, Computer Science, IT, Finance, Management, MIS, Marketing, Business, Physical Science

We do not hire students to work as tutors primarily in these subjects. However, we encourage students in these programs who also fulfill the minimum requirements in one of the programs above to apply at the LRC, and indicate the courses in these subjects that he or she is interested in tutoring.