Duties & Responsibilities

The majority of work performed by an Instructional Student Assistant is:

Instruction – Under appropriate supervision by the course assigned faculty member, implements faculty member’s course content and methodology requiring specific advanced knowledge of the course content;
Grading – Assessment of student work requiring specific academic knowledge directly related to the subject matter with authority to assign a grade (i.e. test or assignment grades) within a range of points; and/or Tutoring – Individual or group instruction requiring advanced knowledge of discipline or subject matter.

LRC Lead tutors will work under the supervision of the Coordinator of Student Academic Success Services and other LRC staff. LRC Lead Tutors will participate in mandatory presemester training retreats and ongoing professional development throughout the semester. Lead Tutors will assist in planning, preparing for, and carrying out Tutor training sessions. LRC Lead Tutors will learn the opening and closing procedures for the LRC and will be responsible for carrying these procedures out as assigned. LRC Lead Tutors will work directly with students in the LRC to assist them with their learning of content and study skills. They will assist students with homework assignments, exam preparation, and interpretation of laboratory experiences -- at all times emphasizing conceptual understand and independent learning skills.

Lead Tutors also serve as embedded tutors, attending class meetings for one section of a supported course as part of their weekly paid hours. Embedded tutors serve in class as model students, engage with the lecture content, and demonstrate successful strategies for academic achievement. They may also assist the professor with class management, in-class small group facilitation, and other supportive activities. Embedded tutors are not required to complete homework, projects, or exams.

In addition to individual/group tutoring and workshop facilitation, LRC Lead Tutors may be involved in various duties or projects as assigned. LRC Lead Tutors may assist with tutor training, the interview process for new applicants, and/or the peer observation process for new and returning LRC tutors. Additional projects and duties may include activities intended to capture student usage data of the LRC, cultivate a welcoming environment for LRC visitors, expand their knowledge of tutoring, promote the use of the LRC, design and facilitate workshops, create materials for use in the LRC, website development, and aid in other activities that meet the needs of the LRC.
