Why I Give ~ ANDREW SALINAS

Port Hueneme Police Department Chief of Police Andrew Salinas

established a nursing scholarship in honor of his late mother Mayra Aguirre. “The primary reason I established the scholarship was to allow the legacy of my mother, whose shortened life was dedicated to helping others, to be carried on not only by her children but by those who face the same challenges as she did.

She was a single mother of three and put herself through nursing school while maintaining a full-time job. We want those who may come from less fortunate backgrounds to have the resources to advance their education in the Nursing program so they can begin making a difference as my mother did. My mother not only used her nursing degree to help others but used her bilingual skills to assist families who needed help better understanding the medical process.”

Why I Give ~ SHARON AND CLINT HARPER

Physics Lecturer Clint Harper and his wife Sharon are generous supporters of the University. “My wife Sharon and I have been public school educators in California our entire adult lives. Sharon at the elementary school level and me at the college/university level. Our own university educations, followed by our decades-long careers as educators, have given us and our family a wonderful life. Now that we have the financial means to do so, it’s time to give back: funding scholarships, purchasing laboratory equipment and supplies, and supporting the CSUCI Dolphin Pantry. Hopefully, our donations are not unusual but become the norm. Sharon and I believe that those of us who have received so much from education are obligated to help the next generations.”

Why I Give ~ LISA RACINE

Alumni Engagement Coordinator Lisa Racine donates regularly to CSUCI. "I was fortunate to have the opportunity to work directly with students and student programs for a number of years, including EOP and direct my contribution to support EOP. I’m thankful to be able to continue to help our students by contributing to our vitally important student support programs. I believe in the work we’re doing as a campus community to help our students to persevere and graduate. Giving is a way to demonstrate that support. A gift doesn’t have to be large to be impactful. The act of giving any amount shows investment in our students, and that means a lot!"

Why I Give ~ NATALIE BRADLEY

Natalie Bradley ’14 MBA donated to CSUCI’s Adopt-A-Grad Program in 2020. “I decided to support and donate to the Adopt-A-Grad program for a couple of reasons, one being 2020 had been a complicated year and if anything, I wanted this graduating class to have every resource at their fingertips. Additionally, CI afforded me an excellent education and many life changing opportunities, this was simply my way of paying it forward.”

Why I Give ~ KIM LAMB GREGORY

CSUCI Communication Specialist Kim Lamb Gregory was inspired to start the Dennis Gregory Mechatronics Scholarship at CSUCI in honor of her late husband and raised $25,000 to endow the scholarship. “Dennis was the first in his generation to graduate from college and struggled to make ends meet with jobs at fast food restaurants, junk yards and moving companies. He had nowhere to live but a metal Airstream trailer in the hot, Tucson, Arizona sun, but graduated from the University of Arizona and became a mechanical engineer. We didn’t have children of our own, so I felt he would want me to help other people’s children so they wouldn’t have the same struggles Dennis had.”
