

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY CHANNEL ISLANDS BLACK FACULTY AND STAFF ASSOCIATION PRESENTS

REFLECTIONS OF DIVERSITY IN THEATRE TELEVISION AND FILM

Wednesday, November 15, 2017
6:30-8PM | CSUCI | Grand Salon

FREE REGISTRATION for CSUCI Students and Staff and Ventura County School District Youth
$10 Other Colleges (with Student ID) | $20 General Public
RSVP Required to <http://go.csuci.edu/reflections>

Channel Islands
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

For more information or media inquiry contact
Dr. LaSonya Davis, LaSonya.davis@csuci.edu or Kelcey Newman, Kelcey@attaindmc.com

A CONVERSATION WITH

DAVID E. TALBERT
NATIONAL PLAYWRIGHT | AUTHOR | FILMMAKER

DAVID E. TALBERT is considered “one of the highest grossing and most recognizable brands in American theatre.”—Variety Magazine With over 25 years in the entertainment business, Talbert has written, directed, and produced 4 films, 3 novels, and 14 touring stage productions.

Talbert's films, “First Sunday,” “Baggage Claim,” and last year's holiday blockbuster “Almost Christmas,” have grossed over $100 million dollars in the U.S. Box Office. Talbert's latest, “El Camino Christmas,” premieres this December in 170 countries. The NETFLIX Original stars Tim Allen, Vincent D'Onofrio, Luke Grimes, Dax Shepard, and Jessica Alba.

Funding was made possible through a grant funded by CSU Channel Islands Instructionally Related Activities. Proceed will be used for scholarships and future events