

WOMEN'S EMPOWERMENT WEEK MARCH 5-9

Monday, March 5

Celebration of Women's Empowerment

11:00am - 12:30pm | Student Union Courtyard

This will be an artistic way to kick-off Women's Empowerment Week with performances from singers, dancers, poets, visual artists and to include various other artistic expressions.

Beyond the Rhetoric: The Oscar Goes to...

1:00pm - 2:00pm | Bell Tower 1471

As more sexual assault and sexual harassment allegations arise within the film industry, what responsibility does the Academy have in their selection process for award recipients? Let's discuss!

Tuesday, March 6

Women's Recognition Luncheon Award Featuring Keynote Speaker: Yesika Salgado

11:00am - 12:30pm | Petit Salon

This year will mark the 16th annual Women's Recognition Luncheon Award. The theme is, "She inspires Me," to recognize the work done by a CI student, faculty, staff/administrator and a community member who inspires the next generation at CI to achieve gender equity through their leadership, service and multicultural perspectives. Press for Change: A Conversation about Students Encouraging Change

3:00pm - 5:00pm | Santa Rosa Commons

This is an event that will encourage people to press for change in the world and help them to understand ways to start hard conversations. In addition to this, there will be small activities such as button making.

Wednesday, March 7

Conversation on Microaggressions

11:00am - 12:00pm | Bell Tower 1471

Microaggressions are subtle but offensive comments/actions toward a minority or other non-dominant group, which are often unintentional or unconsciously reinforce a stereotype. Intercultural Services will be addressing gender microaggressions in particular. We will identify common examples of gender microaggressions, discuss why they are so prevalent, and brainstorm what can be done to address microaggressions in our personal lives.

Courageous Conversations

12:00pm - 1:00pm | Bell Tower 1538

Courageous conversations are more important now than ever before. Join Career Services/Student Leadership Programs for a workshop that will focus on communication skills and confronting tough subjects regarding workplace inequalities.

Thursday, March 8

Women's Empowerment Panel

3:00pm - 4:30pm | Broome Plaza

This panel will discuss a variety of topics including: their own stories, stories of empowering women that they know, how they empower women on a daily basis, what we can do to better empower women and have an opportunity for students to ask questions.

"Empowering Women in History"

Month-long Display | Student Union East Building:
Student Union Building Display Case

In honor of Women's History Month, the Student Union will be displaying information about women who have been empowering throughout history.
