

Channel Islands
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

THE PLANNED GIVING ADVISORY COUNCIL
INVITES YOU TO ATTEND

GLOBAL ECONOMIC TURBULENCE

AND THE IMPACT ON U.S. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND POLICY

WONDERING IF INTEREST RATES WILL GO UP, AND IF SO, HOW MUCH?

To find out, join us for a breakfast presentation on the impact of the world's current economic turbulence on U.S. financial markets. Presenters will discuss how the U.S. economy may react to financial unrest abroad, including how international markets may impact interest rates and monetary policy.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2015

7:30–9:00 AM

Grand Salon, CSU Channel Islands

One University Drive, Camarillo • Once on campus, please follow signs to event parking where shuttles will transport guests to the event location.

SOHN

Sung Won Sohn

Director of CI's Institute for Global Economic Research; Professor, MVS School of Business & Economics

ZIMMERMAN

Gary C. Zimmerman

Retired Economist, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco; Visiting Professor, Economics University of Vienna

PURCHASE TICKETS AT GO.CSUCI.EDU/PGAC
OR CALL 805-437-3552

$40
GENERAL ADMISSION

$20
CI FACULTY/STAFF

Free
CI STUDENTS

JOIN THE CI LEGACY SOCIETY.

Learn how you can become a member of this distinguished group by making a planned gift of any size to CSU Channel Islands.

Visit <http://www.csuci.edu/impact/legacy-giving> or call 805-437-8893 for more information.

Already have a planned gift or deferred gift for CSU Channel Islands? Let us know and we will include you as a member of the CI Legacy Society. Thank you for your support.