

Martin V. Smith
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS & ECONOMICS
C H A N N E L
I S L A N D S

The Institute for Global Economic Research

Coaching Small Businesses to Export

Friday, June 3, 2016 | 8:30 - 11:30 a.m.
CSU Channel Islands Campus | Malibu Hall, Rm. 100

A panel of export experts discuss prospects of bring innovations and ideas to the global market and present demonstrations on new innovations.

Panelists

Marianne Hughes
Business Development
Officer, U.S. Export
Import Bank

Julianne Hennessy
Director, U.S. Commercial
Service Los Angeles (West)

Maurice Kogon
Founder & CEO, Kogon
Trade Consulting

Martin Selander
Regional Manager,
Export Solutions Group
Office of International Trade Small Business Administration

Mark Hirzel
Chair, Los Angeles
Customs Brokers &
Freight Forwarders
Association

Featured Demonstrators

360 Power Group
R. Morgan Harwith,
Executive Vice President Demonstrating the new shape of electrical power

Ultraglas Inc.
Jane Skeeter,
Founder & CEO
Demonstrating innovative glass fabrication techniques

Greenbelt Resource Corporation
Darren Eng, CEO
*Demonstrating local scale modular systems
that converts food,
beverage and Ag
industry wastes into fuel*

RSVP by May 27: go.csuci.edu/iger-export

FREE Event • Breakfast is Included • Complimentary Parking

CSU Channel Islands • One University Drive, Camarillo

For more information: 805-437-3979 or paulina.rodriguez@csuci.edu

Parking for this event is complimentary and limited. Once you enter campus, follow the event signage to the designated lot. Once parked, follow the walking signage to the event, or you may wait for shuttle service at the pick-up location near the lot.

Sponsored by

Generously funded by the

Martin V. and Martha K.
Smith Foundation