

Office of the President Vision, Goals, & Strategies

Vision

The Office of the President shall embody CSUCI's greatest aspirations: providing transformative experiences and opportunities for our students and communities, distinguished by our collective commitment to inclusivity and continuous improvement.

Values

High Ethical Standards, Inclusive Excellence, Exceptional Service, Professional Growth, Teamwork

Goals

We view the University as an inheritance that we must preserve and enhance for future generations. Therefore, the Office of the President takes responsibility for the operational sustainability and relevance of the University.

- Facilitate consistent communication (e.g., stories, information) about the University to internal and external audiences
- Build connections across campus and to external stakeholders
- Embody the concept of "servingsness" to support our internal and external communities
