5.0 PROCEDURES

5.1 Members of the division’s committees, sub-committees and advisory groups are selected at the recommendation of the chairman of the committee and are approved by the VP for BFA. In some cases committees are formed according the Executive Order and members serve ex officio. In others it is the responsibility of the chairman to ensure that participants from other campus divisions and campus community members are selected according to their position, and participate through their tenure in that role at the University, or by appointment by other divisions.

5.1.1 The chairperson of each committee, under the umbrella of the BFA, is responsible for identifying a process whereby members are notified of their appointments.

5.1.1.1 The President is notified of any intent to appoint new community members from outside the campus.

5.1.2 The chairperson is responsible for orienting new committee members.

5.1.3 The chairperson of each committee is responsible for ensuring that vacancies are filled ex officio with the incoming or interim candidate, or with the public or private participants, as appropriate.

5.1.4 Recommendations for any change to the charge and purpose of committee/advisory groups/subcommittees will be submitted to the Vice President for BFA for consideration.
5.1.5 The committee/board chair is responsible for identifying and posting a calendar reflecting meeting dates well in advance and with sensitivity to the academic year’s activities and membership availability.

5.2 At least one faculty member and one student, and their alternates will participate with each of the division’s committees.

5.2.1 Faculty and student members serve one-year appointments or as alternately assigned by the committee chairman.

5.2.2 The Academic Senate Executive Committee provides its faculty recommendations annually in September (primary and alternate) to the chairpersons of each committee.

5.3 Committees/advisory groups provide minutes to its membership following each meeting, with a copy distributed to the Vice President for Business & Financial Affairs and posted on an appropriate website.

5.4 An annual report is completed that reflects the committee/advisory group activities, including as they relate to the campus strategic plan.

5.4.1 The annual report also includes the committee/advisory work plan for the upcoming year.

5.4.1 Annual reports are due to the Vice President by July 15.

5.5 Communication:

5.5.1 Websites for each BFA committee/advisory group are linked from the VP’s webpage. These links to include agendas, minutes, membership, work plan, annual report, and calendar.

5.5.2 The committee chairperson will be available to provide presentations of its annual report and/or updates to campus constituencies as requested.
