

CSU Channel Islands'

ANNUAL MISSION-BASED CENTERS STUDENT AWARD

Sponsored by: Center for Community Engagement, Center for Integrative Studies, Center for International Affairs and the Center for Multicultural Engagement

Nomination Process Notice DUE:
FRIDAY, MARCH 14th, 2014 5p.m.

The Mission Based Centers Student Award
is awarded yearly at the Honors Convocation to those students who best exemplify any or all of the key principles of the University Mission Statement—integrative approaches, service learning, multicultural and international perspectives—through academic activity, and/or extra-curricular activity while a student at CSU Channel Islands.

CSU Channel Islands Mission Statement

Placing students at the center of the educational experience, California State University Channel Islands provides undergraduate and graduate education that facilitates learning within and across disciplines through integrative approaches, emphasizes experiential and service learning, and graduates students with multicultural and international perspectives.

Both Faculty and Students may Nominate Candidates

All graduating seniors are eligible to be nominated. Students, if you believe that your work or that of another student exemplifies any or all of the mission elements, please submit an application along with a letter of recommendation from a CSU Channel Islands Faculty member.
